

AUSTRALIAN COMPANION ANIMAL HEALTH FOUNDATION GRANT APPLICATION 2018

Applications are sought for grants (of up to $10,000.00 per year each), for research into the causes, prevention and cure of disease in animals seen in small animal veterinary practice and in particular in the canine, feline and other companion animal species.

- Successful applications will be funded from the following sources: The Hilda Whitton Memorial Fund, The Sue Du Val Memorial Fund, and the ACAHF general account. The source of funding will be notified and should be suitably acknowledged by the recipient in all publications, presentations, etc. resulting from the research.
- Applications for funds must be made using the attached pro forma.
- Applicants from universities or other institutions must ensure that their applications are approved by the relevant institutional ethics committee, for projects involving the use of animals. Applicants who are not associated with such an institution must certify that their experiments will be conducted in accordance with the NHMRC/CSIRO Code of Practice for the use of Animals in Research in Australia.
- Applicants from universities or other institutions must submit their applications through the appropriate designated official.
- Preference will be given to veterinary applicants who are firstly ASAV members and secondly AVA members. Proof of AVA and ASAV membership (e.g. membership number) must accompany the application.
- Applications must be emailed to: asavoffice@ava.com.au
Subject heading: 2018 ACAHF Grant Application

Any queries, please call/email: (02) 9431 5090 or asavoffice@ava.com.au

Please submit all applications via email no later than the closing date of Monday, 5th February 2018.

- A report detailing progress on the project shall be furnished half yearly to the Foundation. Accompanying such report shall be a statement certifying that the money granted to each project has been spent in accordance with the terms of the grant.
- A terminating report shall be submitted to the Foundation within six months of the period for which the project was funded, or such extended time as the Foundation shall permit. This final report shall give details of the aims and objectives of the project and how they have been met.
- Any publications resulting from the work supported by the Foundation should acknowledge the source of such support and the Foundation shall be entitled to receive free of cost a copy of any publications and any theses resulting from the work.
- The Foundation reserves the right to report briefly on the outcome of funded projects in its annual report, in promotional literature and/or in the Australian Veterinary Practitioner. The wording of such reports will be subject to the approval of the senior researchers.

The Australian Companion Animal Health Foundation (ACAHF) is a non profit, tax exempt Trust of the Australian Veterinary Association Limited (AVA).
