

APPLICATION FORM Radiation Oncology SWSLHD Medical Physics Research Scholarships – 2021

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: 1st OF NOVEMBER 2020

Student Details

Name:
Mailing Address:
Phone Number:
Email (only list your email if you access it regularly):
University:
Degree Currently Enrolled in:
I am applying for:	<input type="checkbox"/> New Honours Scholarship <input type="checkbox"/> New PhD Top-up Scholarship N.B students who were successful in obtaining previous Honours scholarship from SWS Radiation Oncology who now wish to apply for a PhD top-up scholarship will be treated as a new PhD applicant. <input type="checkbox"/> Continuing PhD –Top-Up Scholarship

Checklist for continuing PhD students and/or finishing PhD/Honours students:

- I have completed a 1 page summary of my project achievements over the past year.
- My summary includes a statement regarding my attendance and engagement at research meetings and my contribution to the department's research group as a whole.
- My summary has been reviewed by my CTC supervisor.

My running project/thesis title is:

Thank you – as a continuing/finishing student you do not need to complete the rest of this application.

For new scholarship applications please complete the remainder of this application:

Research Areas of Interest

Please list three general areas of Radiation Oncology Medical Physics that you would be interested in undertaking a project in (NB: It is NOT a requirement that these areas match those of SWSLHD ROMP department).

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Sample Literature Review

Please attach a short literature review of no more than two A4 pages (including references) for one of the above areas of interest, to this application. If you would like suggestions for possible areas to review please contact your local university supervisor or Dr. Lois Holloway (details below).

Radiation Oncology Medical Physics or other relevant experience

Please describe any Radiation Oncology Medical Physics Experience or other relevant experience you have. In particular any equipment (hardware and software) you may have used:

Please provide details of any other skills you have that may be beneficial when working in Radiation Oncology Medical Physics (e.g. computing skills, programming languages, team work):

Referees

Please provide the contact details for your two referees; this should include at least one referee from your university.

Referee One

Name
Position
Mailing Address
Phone Number
Email

Referee Two

Name
Position
Mailing Address
Phone Number
Email

Checklist for new students:

- I have completed this application form
- I have attached my university transcript (including subjects and results).
- I have attached a brief CV.
- I have attached a short literature review.

Completed Applications

Forward completed applications and any requests for further information to:

Dr. Lois Holloway

Research Physicist

E: SWSLHD-RadOncResearchSupport@health.nsw.gov.au

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: 1st NOVEMBER 2020
