TEDI-London Summer School 2020

User-centred design of dementia-friendly environments

Exciting opportunity for students to spend a term in London, participating in a cross-cultural & multidisciplinary learning opportunity to address the global challenge of an ageing society

To apply, please submit a video or written submission, answering the six questions below. Submissions must be accompanied by a supporting statement (up to 250 words) from an academic or programme lead from your department/faculty.

Applications must be sent to sarah.2.campbell@kcl.ac.uk.

Please ensure the email submission has “TEDI-London Summer School 2020” as the subject heading. Please ensure the following are included in the body of the email:

Name:
Programme of Study: UG / Masters
Subject/Discipline of Study:
Year of Study:
Can attend without a scholarship: Yes  OR  No

Application questions:

1. Why are you interested in being involved in creating dementia friendly environments?
2. What do you hope you would learn from attending the summer school?
3. How do you imagine you might use what you learn at the summer school in the 12 months following the summer school?
4. What do you think would be challenging about the summer school for you personally?
5. How would you approach and deal with these challenges?
6. What skills do you have that you think would be assets at the summer school and why would these be useful?

If you would like to apply for a scholarship, please indicate this in your application by including an explanation (no more than 250 words) why you believe you should be awarded a fully funded scholarship place at the summer school.

Eligibility criteria:

- Any student at any level of study from any discipline
- Available to attend the full Summer School programme in London (June 1st-7th August), worth 2 module credits
- Able to cover costs of the Summer School and stay in London, if not awarded a scholarship (10-weeks: AUS$8018.56, for flights, accommodation, Visa & insurance)
- Able to secure a Visa to travel to the UK

There may be schemes available at UNSW, such as Study Abroad, to cover the costs of attending the Summer School. We estimate you will need up to £30 per day whilst in London to cover food and travel.

Please send completed applications to Sarah Campbell at: sarah.2.campbell@kcl.ac.uk

Shortlisted candidates will be interviewed and places allocated. All candidates will be contacted to inform them of the outcome.
